

THATCHER NEWS

The Thatcher Public schools will open Monday, September 6th.

The Academy opened Monday morning with a larger registration than ever before on the first day. Nearly every town in the valley is represented at the Academy and there are students in attendance from Apache, Navajo and Pima counties, and some expected from Gila county. Most of the teachers have been away attending summer schools and have returned with new interest and enthusiasm. Mr. Payne, as musical director, promises to give a strong acquisition. Everything gives promise of a highly successful year.

Alma Sessions returned to Tucson Monday, where he expects to continue his studies at the University.

The Thatcher choir is working hard preparatory to putting on a musical on the evening of September 10th. This promises to be a choice treat, as Mr. Payne has proven unusual ability as a leader and he has about a hundred select voices.

Leslie Carpenter is home from Bisbee, visiting with his parents.

Ben Robinson returned home from a visit to Snowflake Wednesday evening.

Andrew Brimhall will teach manual training in the district schools. He is a young man of great ability.

Seven students came in from Pima county Saturday evening to attend the Academy.

Mrs. Zilla Major left Sunday evening to join her husband at Miami.

Miss Ella Heywood left Monday morning for Snowflake, where she will teach school the coming season.

W. A. Moody left for Phoenix Tuesday morning, where he goes to take up his labors as land appraiser.

Mrs. Virgie Lee's Bee Hive swarm held a delightful social Wednesday afternoon as a fitting close to their season's work.

Fred Moody went to Globe Sunday evening, after visiting with his uncle, W. A. Moody, for the past month.

The monthly priesthood meeting was held at the Academy Saturday with a good attendance from all over the valley.

Henry Matthews has returned home from Miami, where he has been at work for several months.

Leland Heywood has returned home after spending the past two months in Apache and Navajo counties.

Alvin Mickelson, of Snowflake, came over in his car and spent a few days visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mickelson.

Miss Fredrickson and Miss Perkle, of Salt Lake City, came in Saturday evening to take up their work in the Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pace returned home from San Francisco Sunday evening, where they went to attend the exposition.

David, George, Aaron and Eunice Nelson have returned from St. Johns to take up their studies at the Academy.

CENTRAL NEWS

Oscar Webster, accompanied by his daughters, Misses Zola and Jessie, left Sunday for a three weeks' visit to Mr. Webster's goat ranch.

R. P. Jones and family, and Frank Cluff and family have returned home from their outing in the Graham mountains.

Walter Dodge, who is employed at Miami, came up Sunday to visit with friends and relatives, leaving for the Copper City Monday afternoon.

The Junior Bee Hive Girls met at the home of Mrs. H. W. Layton Tuesday and gave her a pleasant surprise. A short program, followed by refreshments of cake and lemonade were greatly enjoyed, after which Mr. Layton took the girls for an auto ride to the Pima bridge.

PIMA NEWS

Mrs. Earl Cluffs' and Mrs. Edith Eyring's Bee Hive Girls had a corn party Monday evening. The girls gathered at the home of Mrs. Cluff about 6:00 o'clock in the evening, each one bringing with them a half dozen ears of corn. Soon a large bon fire was started and every girl was soon busy roasting her corn.

Misses Mary and Susan Rogers returned home from Globe Wednesday, after spending three weeks visiting with their sister, Mrs. Lottie Myers.

Mrs. Eva Lines, Misses Nora and Laura Anderson and Geneva Mattice returned home from the exposition Wednesday evening.

The teachers and members of district No. 3, of the Pima Relief Society, entertained the members of the society Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. D. Maloy. A short program was enjoyed, after which games were played and peaches and grapes were served as refreshments.

Mrs. Caroline Teeples gave rag bees Wednesday. Present were the pioneers of Pima.

George Marshall has returned home from San Francisco, where he visited the exposition.

Hade Gray returned home from Silver City, N. M., last week.

Miss Lena Rogers returned home from Globe Tuesday morning to attend the Gila Academy.

Dave Rogers and wife of El Paso and Mrs. Ed Allen and two little ones went to Duncan and Lordsburg last week in Mr. Roger's new car and returned home Monday evening.

Miss Fannie Allen went to Lordsburg Tuesday morning to visit with her sister, Mrs. John Lines.

The Pima Public School will start Monday, September 6th. The following teachers have been employed for the year: Misses Elma Leitch, of Goldfield, Nev.; Rose Snyder, of Colo.; Nora and Laura Anderson, of Pima; Roseland Wixom, Missa Green and Mayola Mickle, of Thatcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkins and children, of Ray, Arizona, are in town visiting with relatives.

Miss Ethel White arrived here from Phoenix Wednesday evening. Miss White will teach school in Hubbard this winter.

Claud Foster returned home from Morenci last Thursday.

M. Lines went to Morenci Wednesday to take some milk cows to the Lines & Kelley dairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferrin spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ferrin, at the Marshall ranch across the river.

C. D. Davis has resigned his position as clerk for Webb-Merrill Commercial Co., and accepted a position as a traveling salesman for a company in Ohio.

Mr. Dove left for Globe Tuesday evening, where he has secured employment.

Literary Recital at M. E. Church

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gammage arrived here Wednesday from other parts of the State, where they have been looking after the enforcement of the prohibition law and speaking in the interest of national prohibition.

Arrangements have been made to have them fill the pulpit at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. This meeting will be of especial interest because they will be able to report conditions as to the working of the prohibition law all over the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammage make up one of the best platform teams to be found anywhere and all are invited to hear them.

Sunday evening, at 8:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Mrs. Gammage will give a literary recital, comprising an arrangement from the opening and closing scenes of the "Passion Play," as she saw it in 1910 in Oberammergau, Germany, and a condensation of "Harold, the Last of the Saxon Kings," by Bulwer-Lytton.

Mrs. Gammage has unusual talent and ability in this work. She has had the very best training to be had in this country and in Europe. A silver offering will be taken.

GENEALOGY SOCIETY

Don C. McBride, Superintendent of the Genealogy Society, will have charge of the meeting in Pima, Sunday, September 19th. Special meetings will be held in each ward and prominent speakers will be in attendance.

To the Progressive Farmers

ARE YOU COMING?

100,000 farmers will attend and exchange ideas. U. S. Government, 17 Western States and Canada will exhibit farm products raised with and without irrigation. See the largest Tractor Floving Demonstration ever held. Improvements exhibited will include everything the farmer needs to make his work easier and more profitable. Speakers will cover subjects vital to the farmer and his family. We want you to come. Ask questions. Make suggestions. Address INTERNATIONAL DRY FARMING CONGRESS, DENVER, COLO.

to visit our Denver office and see the operation of a big city switchboard.

The central office equipment of a large city telephone plant affords a most interesting study to telephone users.

It will give you a new interest in your own telephone.

It will cause you to marvel at the ingenuity that produces a living, efficient service out of a labyrinth of wires and other necessary equipment.

It will give you a new insight into what is involved in giving Universal Service.

To the Public

"I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy a word of gratitude," writes Mrs. T. N. Witherall, Gowanda, N. Y. "When I began taking this medicine I was in great pain and feeling terribly sick, due to an attack of summer complaint. After taking a dose of it I had not long to wait for relief as it benefited me almost immediately." For sale by Safford Drug Co.

Three Babies Are Christened

A christening party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hart D. Empie, Thursday evening, at which three babies were named. The christening ceremonies were performed by Rev. G. L. Horene and the children named were the babies of Mr. and Mrs. Empie, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spiegel and Mr. and Mrs. M. Richmond.

After the ceremonies were over the guests were invited into the dining room, where they sat down to a beautifully decorated table and were served with a delicious chicken dinner.

Those present besides the parents of the babies were: Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Horene and children, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. John and Rev. C. C. Rickman, of Ft. Grant.

BIG ANNIVERSARY EDITION

The El Paso Times celebrated its thirty-fifth anniversary, Sunday, August 29th, by issuing a 100-page edition, replete with news of the Southwest and profusely illustrated. It is one of the best editions ever gotten out by a newspaper and is a fitting tribute to the growth of the Southwest.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Deals were completed this week by which A. E. Brookin purchased the home of W. B. Fonda, corner of Ninth and J streets, and the home of Mr. Hamilton, in Layton. Mr. Scarber, of Globe, completed the purchase of the Robbins' ranch in Artesia.
